The Soviet Embassy in China has sent to Moscow an urgent request for permission to repatriate Soviet citizens in Mukden who wish to be repatriated. Instructions were requested for the transfer of up to 400 Soviet citizens from Mukden to Tientsin or to Dairen. The Embassy suggested that Nationalist and Communist authorities be requested to declare a short truce in order to assure the safe evacuation of Soviet citizens from Mukden and proposed that mediation with the Chinese Communist authorities be undertaken by Soviet Vice-Consul A. Petrov, in Dairen, and Major General Ivanov, commander of the Soviet 105th Infantry Brigade in the Pulantien (121-59, 39-24) area.
